

The diagram illustrates a three-step process for formalization. It consists of three colored shapes arranged horizontally: a blue oval labeled 'formalized model', an orange rounded rectangle labeled 'formalized lemma', and a green rectangle labeled 'formalized result'. Arrows indicate a sequential flow from left to right between these stages.

